I'm intrigued by the unexpected...
The toys of my childhood, especially my Action Man.
I would love to see him again...

The unlikely interest that engages your curiosity... I'm intrigued by the restoration of classic cars. I don't do it myself, but if I had the money and the space I'd have a whole fleet of them.

The unqualified regret you wish you could amend... Not learning to swim. Years later I met him and he signed it. He's a big hero of mine.

The unqualified regret you wish you could amend... Not learning to swim.

The song that means most to you... The unqualified regret you wish you could amend... Not learning to swim.

The temptation you wish you could resist... Pleading my wife! She knows I can't resist her and takes advantage.

The unfulfilled ambition that continues to haunt you... I'd love a part in a film.

The philosophy that underpins your life... The harder you work, the luckier you get.

The event that altered the course of your life and character... Moving to London when I was 18.

The crime you would commit knowing you could get away with it... I'd break into the best art museums at night and stare at works of art without the crowds.

The philosophy that underpins your life... The harder you work, the luckier you get.

The order of service at your funeral... I'd have a service at St Patrick's Cathedral in Dublin. I'd want Elvis's Bridge of Arts for me when I got a job with the BBC.

The life and character... The man I am today.

The poem that touches your soul... He Wishes For The Clothing Of Heaven by WB Yeats. I find its message about love and dreams very moving.
