The DEFINITIVE ARTICLE

We ask a celebrity a set of devilishly probing questions – and only accept THE definitive answer. This week it's Sky News presenter Kay Burley

The prized possession you value above all others... My sense of humour! It's funny but deals with serious issues like health and time again... It's the best love story ever told. The figure from history for whom you'd most like to buy a pie and a pint... Queen's Bohemian Rhapsody. I remember watching the video on Top Of The Pops in 1975 and it blew my mind. The song that means most to you... The Queen's Bohemian Rhapsody. I remember watching the video on Top Of The Pops in 1975 and it blew my mind. The poem that touches your soul... The King is written by Rudyard Kipling. I first read it when I was 11 after my mum gave it to me. It's a brilliant guide to how to live life.

The pet hate that makes your hackles rise... Drivers at traffic lights who only indicate to turn right after the light's turned green. You're then stuck behind them if you want to go straight on. It drives me nuts. The misapprehension about yourself you wish you could erase... The promise to haunt you... The order of service at your funeral... Claire Foy – who plays Anne Boleyn – takes us behind the scenes on Wolf Hall. How to cook classic Jewish food. Monty Don on an unsung Valentine's flower. PLUS Britain's best TV listings.

The temptation you wish you could resist... Having the last word, whether I'm arguing with friends or interviewing someone on TV. I can't help myself. The priority activity if you were the Prime Minister for a day... I'd go to Number 10 and listen to David Cameron to find out why he really doesn't want to take part in the party leaders' General Election debates. I think it's because, as Prime Minister, he has the most to lose, but he can't admit it.

The person who has influenced you most... My dad Frank. He was wise and had a great sense of humour, which my 21-year-old son Alexander has inherited. Dad died from a heart attack in 1995 at 65. The event that altered the course of your life and character... Covering the Herald Of Free Enterprise ferry disaster in Zeebrugge in 1987 for TV-am. I was a very junior reporter but I volunteered to go. When I got back I was promoted to presenter and my career took off. The way you would spend your fantasy 24 hours, with no travel restrictions... I'd corral all my friends at Heathrow to presenter and my career took off.

The way you want to be remembered... Great mother, loyal friend, dog lover. The philosophy that underpins your life... It's Kipling's line, 'If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster, And treat those two impostors just the same...'.

The philosophy that underpins your life... It's Kipling's line, 'If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster, And treat those two impostors just the same...'. The order of service at your funeral... The misapprehension about yourself you wish you could erase... That I'm po-faced. People have a go at me on Twitter and say I'm too serious. They'd be surprised to know how mischievous and naughty I am away from the telly.
